About Department of Posts, India Post

For more than 150 years, the Department of Posts (DoP) has been the backbone of the country's communication and has played a crucial role in the country's social-economic development. It touches the lives of each and every Indian citizen in many ways: delivering mails, accepting deposits under Small Savings Schemes, providing life insurance cover under Postal Life Insurance (PLI) and Rural Postal Life Insurance (RPLI), and providing retail services like bill collection, sale of forms, etc. The DoP also acts as an agent for the Government of India in discharging Central and State Govt. services for citizens such as Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme (MGNREGS) wage disbursement and old age pension payments like Aasara Pensions. With more than 1,55,000 post offices, the DoP has the most widely distributed postal network in the world.

Vision
India Post's products and services will be the customer's first choice.
